The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 336 (2), 338, 340(2) of BNS, 2023 r/w 12(1)(b) of Passport Act, 1967, in Crime No. 652 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is working as a Sub-Inspector of Police. The petitioner/accused applied for reissue of a passport before the Passport Office and during verification of records, the passport authorities found that he had obtained another passport. Upon enquiry, it was revealed that he was in possession of multiple passports along with criminal intimation. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) fairly submits that the petitioner is in possession of multiple passports and is also involved in criminal cases and also submitted that no previous case is pending against the petitioner. However, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, though FIR has been registered on 19.12.2025, so far no steps have been taken by the respondent police to secure the petitioner and the petitioner has no previous case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial
