The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 27.01.2025 for the offence punishable under Sections 305, 331(4) and 62 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, in C.C. No.24 of 2026 on the file of the learned District Munsif-cum-Judicial Magistrate Court, Aravakurichi, arising out of Crime No.150 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 23.05.2025 at about 12.15 p.m., the petitioner, along with some other accused persons, allegedly committed robbery in the house of the defacto complainant. Hence, the respondent police registered a case for the aforesaid offence.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner has been in incarceration from 27.01.2025 onwards. On this ground, he prayed for the grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the final report has been filed in this case and the same has been taken on file by the learned District Munsif-cum-Judicial Magistrate, Aravakurichi, and the case has been posted for trial. He further submitted that long incarceration alone cannot be a ground for granting bail to the petitioner. Hence, he strongly objected to the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials placed on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the accused allegedly committed robbery, this Court is of the view that long incarceration alone cannot be a ground to enlarge the petitioner on bail. In this regard, this Court places reliance on the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in State of Karnataka vs. Sri Darshan etc., reported in 2025 SCC OnLine SC 1702, wherein it was observed that long incarceration of the accused person and a long list of witnesses which will take considerable period of time are not grounds for bail particularly when the offences are heinous. Hence, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed, with a direction to the learned trial Court to complete the trial on or before 19.06.2026.
