The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 10.12.2025 for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 296(b), 103(1), 351(3) and 54 of BNS in Crime No.632 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and along with other accused conspired together and attacked the defacto complainant's brother, due to which he succumbed to the injuries. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 10.12.2025. He would further submit that one of the co-accused was also released on bail. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondent would submit that based on the complaint lodged by the brother of the victim the case has been registered under Sections 126(2), 296(b), 103(1), 351(3) and 54 of BNS. He would further submit that the investigation is completed and charge sheet is filed. He would further submit that the petitioner has no previous case. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence and considering the fact that the investigation is completed and the charge sheet is filed and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of
