3. It is also not in dispute that the respondent has filed a petition in H.M.O.P.No.220 of 2024, seeking divorce and the same is pending on the file of the Principal Sub Court, Dindigul and that the petitioner has initiated the proceeding under the Domestic Violence Act and the same is pending in D.V.O.P.No.6 of 2025 on the file of the Court of Judicial Magistrate No.I, Thoothukudi.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is residing at Thoothukudi District and finds it very difficult to travel to Dindigul to attend all the hearings.

5. The learned counsel appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner has not assigned any valid reason or ground to transfer the case.

reported in 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has reiterated the position with generally, it is the wife's convenience, which must be looked at while considering the transfer petition under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure and the relevant passage is extracted hereunder :

“The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.”, the bench observed.”

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and taking note of the fact that the petitioner is residing at Thoothukudi District, this Court is inclined to allow this petition. Accordingly, the petition in H.M.O.P.No.220 of 2024, is ordered to be withdrawn from the file of the Principal Sub Court,
