The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 06.02.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 132, 109(1), 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 110 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 06.02.2026, when the respondent police were on patrol duty and when they intercepted the petitioner, the petitioner abused the respondent police in filthy language, assaulted with weapon and threatened with dire consequences and also preventing them from discharging their official duty. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that he has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 06.02.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD). No. 5535 of 2026

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner is a history sheeter and is having 15 previous cases, out of which two cases were registered under Section 302 of IPC. He would further submit that the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and considering the facts that nobody was injured in this case and though the petitioner is having 15 previous cases, in all cases he was already released on bail and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties
