The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 419, 420, 465, 468, 471 and 120 B of IPC, in Crime No. 1 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that there is a civil dispute between the parties in respect of the property and in this regard, already a civil suit is also pending in O.S.No.159 of 2022 and also submitted that A1 was arrested and thereafter, released on bail by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) fairly submits that there is a civil dispute between the parties in respect of the property and in this regard, already a civil suit is also pending in O.S.No.159 of 2022 and both the parties claiming title over the property. He further submitted that the investigation is pending and one previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and also considering the facts that already there is a dispute between the parties in respect of family property and in this regard, already a civil suit in O.S.No.159 of 2022 is also pending and the grant of bail to the co-accused by this Court, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
