The petitioner/accused, apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police in Crime No.105 of 2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 296(b) and 351(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 and Sections 3 and 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Charging Exorbitant Interest Act, 2003, has filed the present petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the de facto complainant had borrowed a loan from the petitioner and four other persons and had been paying interest at the rate of 10% on the said amount. It is further alleged that the de facto complainant subsequently repaid the entire loan amount. However, thereafter, the accused persons are stated to have demanded payment of additional interest even after discharge of the loan and allegedly threatened the de facto complainant. It is further alleged that, on 02.03.2026 at about 10.30 p.m., the accused persons again threatened the defacto complainant with dire consequences. Hence, the respondent police have registered a case against the accused persons for the aforesaid offences.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Accordingly, he prayed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that, even after repayment of the loan amount, the accused persons demanded additional interest by threatening the defacto complainant. He would further submit that the petitioner has been arrayed as Accused No.1. It is also submitted that, though the petitioner has no previous criminal antecedents, the nature of the allegations warrants denial of anticipatory bail. Accordingly, he opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials placed on record.
