Prayer :Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, to issue a writ of Habeas Corpus, to call for the records connected with the detention order passed in H.S.(M) Confdl No.129/2025 dated 23-11-2025 on the file of the 2nd respondent herein and quash the same and direct the respondents to produce the detenu or body of the detenu, namely, the petitioner's son, Thiraiyyaraj @ Raju Bai, aged about 26 years, s/o. Vetriseivan, now detained at the Central Prison, Palayamkottai, before this Court and set him at liberty.

For Petitioner : Mr.N.Pragalathan

For Respondents : Mr.A.Thiruvadikumar
Additional Public Prosecutor

ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by N. ANAND VENKATESH,J.)

The petitioner is the mother of the detenu, by name, Thiraiyyaraj @ Raju Bai, aged about 26 years, s/o. Vetriseivan. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by his order in H.S.(M) Confdl No. 129/2025 dated 23-11-2025, holding him to be a "Goonda", as contemplated under Section 2(f) of the Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. Apart from the other grounds that were raised by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, one of the main ground that was raised is that the Detaining Authority had stated in the detention order that the remand of the detenu was extended up to 21.11.2025 and thereafter, it was extended up to 05.12.2025. However, in the paper book that was supplied, what is available is only the request from the Jail Authority for extension of remand and the extension of remand order does not form part of the paper book. In view of the same, it is contended that the Detaining Authority has arrived at such a conclusion without any supporting materials.

4. We have carefully gone through the detention order and also the materials that were relied upon by the Detaining Authority. The Detaining Authority has specifically stated in the detention order that the remand was extended up to 21.11.2025 and that there was a subsequent extension up to 05.12.2025. Except for the requisition from the jail authorities, the remand extension order does not form part of the paper book. Hence, without any materials to substantiate that the remand has been extended by an order passed by the competent Court, the Detaining Authority has come to such a conclusion. This clearly reflects the non-application of mind.

5. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in H.S.(M) Confdl No.129/2025 dated 23-11-2025, passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz., Thiraiyiyaraj @ Raju Bai, aged about 26 years, s/o. Vetriseivan, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
