2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, along with the other accused persons, colluded with the intention of grabbing the defacto complainant's land and fraudulently created forged sale deeds. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and also submitted that the petitioner is not a named accused in the FIR. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

7. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that the petitioner has no previous case and the petitioner is the subsequent purchaser of the property and the petitioner is not a named accused in the FIR, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
