The petitioner/accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 17.04.2024 for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c), 20(b)(ii)(C), 25 and 29(1) of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, in Crime No.429 of 2019 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, on 28.08.2019 at about 7.45 hours, the respondent police, based upon secret information, proceeded along with a police party and necessary equipment, and found the accused persons in joint possession of 23.5 kgs of ganja. Hence, the case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that no contraband was recovered from the petitioner and that he has been implicated only on the basis of the confession of the co-accused. He would also submit that the petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police would submit that the petitioner has been arrayed as A2 and had possession of 23.50 kg of ganja and offences are grave in nature. He would further submit that there are no previous cases against the petitioner. Accordingly, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials placed on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the nature of the offence, the fact that there are no previous cases against the petitioner and considering that there was no recovery from the petitioner and also considering the period of incarceration of the petitioner from 17.04.2024, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only)
