The petitioners/A1 to A3, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 74, 133 and 351(2) of BNS, 2023 and Section 4 of TNPWH Act, in Crime No.87 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the mother of A4, who got land in the Government Scheme. A4 used to ask his share. On 01.03.2026, the petitioner and other accused persons abused her in filthy language and also assaulted her. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected in the above said incident. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) fairly submits that the petitioners have no previous cases and the injured sustained simple injury and she has been treated as out patient. However, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, as the investigation is pending.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and the petitioners have no previous cases and also considering the fact that the injured sustained simple injury and she has been treated as out patient, I am inclined to
