The petitioner/accused No.2, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Section 326(b) of BNS, 2023 r/w Section 3 of Tamil Nadu Property Damage and Loss Act, in Crime No.62 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons caused damage to the public road for more than one time and also prevent the public to use the said road. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature. Hence, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However, he admitted that the petitioner has no previous cases.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and there was a land dispute between the parties and even according to the complaint, no eye witness to the occurrence, and also considering the fact that the petitioner has no previous cases, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
