The petitioners/A1 & A2, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) of BNS, 2023 and Sections 21(1) and 21(2) of MMDR Act, in Crime No.70 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 21.03.2026, at about 03.00 p.m., the defacto complainant and his team were conducting a routine vehicle check up near the place of occurrence. At that time, the petitioners were found to have illegally transported six units of gravel sand in lorry bearing Registration No.TN 55 CC 2025 without permission. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected in the above said incident. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) fairly submits that the petitioners have no previous cases. However, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and quantity of the materials involved in this case, and also considering the fact that no previous cases pending against the petitioners, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners,
