ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Section 303(2) of BNS and Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.53 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had illegally transported five units of river sand by using tipper lorry. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is the owner of the vehicle and he was not present in the scene of occurrence. He would further submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. They have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) fairly submits that the petitioner has no previous cases. However, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the fact that the petitioner is the owner of the vehicle and even as per the FIR, the driver of the vehicle transported sand and the petitioner was not present in the scene of occurrence and no
