The petitioner/Accused No.2, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.53 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is running a tea stall and the A1 is well known to her and he used to come tea stall buy cigarettes, so he has to give Rs. 1,200/-. On 17.01.2026, the same was asked by the defacto complainant, the petitioner and other accused persons abused her in filthy language and attacked her with hands and pushed her down and threatened her. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that investigation is pending and the petitioner has no previous cases. However, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and also considering the
