The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 194 of BNSS @ 108 of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 15 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant borrowed money for his business from the petitioner and remitted the same. However, the petitioner continuously demanded more money from the defacto complainant. On 23.01.2026 at about 8.00 a.m., the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and his family members in filthy language and threatened them, due to which the defacto complainant's father consumed poison and died. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD). No. 6192 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 194 of BNSS @ 108 of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 15 of 2026. He further submits that there is a money dispute pending between the parties and the petitioner has no previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that there is a money dispute pending between the parties and since the FIR has been registered on 24.01.2026, the material part of investigation might have been completed and the petitioner has no previous case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
