Act, 2002, in Crime No.34 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 13.03.2026 due to the previous dispute, the accused abused the defacto complainant parties and attacked them with hands. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. 6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the fact that though the petitioner has 8 previous case, they are not similar in nature and he has got bail in all those cases in 6 cases and two cases have been disposed of and also considering the injured in this case has been discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:
