2. The case of the prosecution is that on 27.01.2026 at about 4.45 p.m., when the victim was taking water in a pipe near the house, the petitioner herein grabber her hand and dragged away and tried to misbehave, but she slapped his hand away and left the place. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. There is civil dispute between the parties. On that motive, the present complaint has been lodged. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submits that the offences are grave in nature and investigation is pending, however, the petitioner has no previous cases. He relying upon the 183 BNS Statement recorded from the victim, opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
