2. The case of the prosecution is that on 05.12.2025 at 06.00 p.m., when the defacto complainant along with friends standing near the Employment Office, the accused persons came there, abused them in filthy language demanding amount and assaulted them with hands and billhook and taken away Rs.300/- from his pocket. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not involved in any offence as alleged in the FIR. Co-accused has been released on bail. Though the petitioner was detained under Act 14, subsequently, it was revoked. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that petitioner was detained under Act 14, thereafter, it was revoked. At the knife point, the petitioner demanded money from the defacto complainant. There are 8 previous cases pending against the petitioner, including the cases under Sections 302 IPC and NDPS Act. 5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the nature of offence, and the petitioner was detained under Act 14/1982, later it was set aside, though the petitioner has previous cases, he was granted bail in all those cases and the co-accused in this case has already been released on bail and also considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Karur, and on further conditions that:

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;
