The petitioner/Accused No.6, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 25.12.2025 for the offences punishable under Sections 103(1) of BNS, in Crime No.916 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the deceased is the son of the defacto complainant. There is a dispute between the deceased and the accused persons with regard to their friend's death the deceased has also spoken about him badly. Due to which, on 24.12.2025, the petitioner and other accused persons conspired together and murdered the deceased. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not involved in any offence as alleged in the FIR. There is no specific overt act against the petitioner. He is no way connected with the occurrence. He was falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the co-accused was already granted bail by this Court. Therefore, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the due to the previous dispute with regard to the death of his friend, the petitioner along with other accused planned and surrounded the deceased and took him to a far away place and attacked him with aruval, due to which, the deceased died on the spot. It is a retaliation murder. Investigation in this case has been completed and charge sheet also filed before the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Thoothukudi and the same was taken cognizance in P.R.C.No.69 of 2026 and pending for committal proceedings. Therefore, he vehemently, opposed the grant of bail. However, he has no previous case pending against him.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the fact that the investigation has been completed and charge sheet also filed before the concerned Court and the same is pending for committal proceedings, the accused has no previous case and also considering the fact that the co-accused was already granted bail by this Court and period of incarceration of the petitioner from 25.12.2025, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
