2. It is evident from the records that the marriage between the parties was solemnized on 26.02.218 as per Hindu Rites and customs and due to their wed-lock they were blessed with a male child and a female child and subsequently, there arose some misunderstanding between them and they are living separately.

3. It is not in dispute that the male child is now under the care and custody of the respondent and the female child is with the petitioner. It is also not in dispute that the respondent has filed a petition in H.M.O.P.No.16 of 2025, seeking restitution of conjugal rights and the same is pending on the file of the Sub Court, Thirumangalam.

4.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is residing at Aruppukottai, Virudhunagar District along with female child and finds it very difficult to travel to Thirumangalam to attend all the hearings.

5. The learned counsel for the respondent would submit that the respondent is ready and willing for reunion, but the petitioner alone has been objecting the same. He would further submit that the case may be transferred to any other place in between, convenient for both the parties.

6.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the mediation was attempted. It is seen from the Mediation Report that no agreement was reached between the parties.

7. In the case of N.C.V.Aishwarya Vs. A.S.Saravana Karthik Sha reported in 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has reiterated the position with generally, it is the wife's convenience, which must be looked at while considering the transfer petition under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure and the relevant passage is extracted hereunder :

“The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while
