ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 19.02.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 126(2), 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) and 109 of BNS (Section 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 324, 506(ii) and 307 of IPC) in Crime No.86 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the complainant is the mother of the deceased. On 18.02.2026, the petitioner and other accused were found in possession of 63 cm sword and they are said to have caused injury to the complainant. Hence, the respondent police registered a case against the accused for the aforesaid offences and arrested the petitioner. Hence, this petition.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and the co-accused was already released on bail and he has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 19.02.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner and other accused were found in possession of 63 cm sword and they are said to have caused injury to the complainant and the petitioner has 5 previous cases. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner. However, he fairly conceded that in all cases, he was released on bail and anticipatory bail and the injured was discharged from the hospital and the co-accused was already released on anticipatory bail.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and though the petitioner has 5 previous cases, all are not similar kind of cases, and in all cases, he was released on bail and anticipatory bail and the injured was discharged from the hospital and the co-accused was already granted anticipatory bail and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this
