The petitioner/A1, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b) and 118(1) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.114 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 02.02.2026, while the defacto complainant along with her daughter Parameshwari visited her grand daughter Harshini, who was married to the third accused namely, Alaguraja. Since some electrical works were there, she along with her daughter went to call the electrician and at that time, all the accused waylaid them and took wordy quarrel and assaulted them with aruval and stone and caused injuries on her face. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He would further submit that there was a family dispute between the parties. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner and other accused assaulted the defacto complainant and her daughter with Aruval and stone and caused injuries. He would further submit that the petitioner has no previous cases and the injured person has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
