ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners/A1 to A4, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 115(2), 126(2), 118(1), 351(3) and 296(b) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.115 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a dispute regarding the announcement of certain postings by their respective political party. Due to which, the petitioners and other accused persons assaulted the defacto complainant with wooden sticks and also criminally intimidated him with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected in the above said incident. He would further submit that it is a case in counter case. a counter complaint has been registered against the defacto complainant in Crime No.114 of 2026. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and the first petitioner has three previous cases and the petitioners 2 to 4 have no previous cases. However, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
