2. The case of the prosecution is that on 10.03.2026, around 05.00 p.m., due to previous enmity, the accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and made assault upon the defacto complainant as well as her son, thereby they sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) fairly submits that the offence is grave in nature. Due to the previous motive, the accused attacked the defacto complainant and her son. He pulled the saree of the defacto complainant. The injuries are simple in nature and the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Investigation is still pending. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However, The petitioner is having no previous case.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and there is land dispute between the parties, injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case against the petitioner, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Kodaikanal, Dindigul District and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police, on every Saturday at 10.30 a.m., for a period of four weeks, thereafter, as and when required for interrogation:

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offences of similar nature.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness
