The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, corresponding offences under Section 294(b), 321, 324 and 506(2) of IPC, in Crime No.161 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute, on 19.03.2026 at about 10.00 a.m., the petitioners along with the other accused persons abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, attacked him with hands and wooden logs and also caused injuries to him. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected in the above said incident. They have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) fairly submits that due to property dispute, the said occurrence happened and the injured has been discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioners. However, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioners, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:
