2. The case of the prosecution is that due to the previous motive between the petitioner village and the defacto complainant village with regard to the Bull taming prior to the occurrence, the accused persons gathered together unlawfully on 12.01.2026, waylaid the deceased and attacked him indiscriminately and caused death. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not involved in any offence as alleged in the FIR. There is no specific overt act against the petitioner. He is no way connected with the occurrence. He was falsely implicated in this case only with an intention to harass the petitioner. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the totally there are 10 accused in this case. The petitioner is A7. He was arrested and in judicial custody from 23.01.2026. Due to the previous motive in Bull taming in Jallikattu, the accused persons unlawfully assembled, intercepted the deceased and attacked with aruvai and the deceased died on the spot. The petitioner has actively participated in the above said occurrence. Now the investigation has been completed and the charge sheet has been filed before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Pudukkottai, and the same was taken cognizance in P.R.C.No.18 of 2026 and posted on 07.04.2026 for committal process. Therefore, he vehemently, opposed the grant of bail. However, he has no previous case pending against him.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the fact that the investigation has been completed and charge sheet also filed before the concerned Court, the case is pending for committal process, the accused has no previous case and also considering the period of incarceration of the petitioner from 23.01.2026, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the
