2. The case of the prosecution is that on secret information, the officials went to the occurrence spot and found that the accused commit dacoity against the public and when the same was questioned, he threatened the officials. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) fairly submits that the offences are grave in nature. The petitioner has threatened the police officials also. He involved in the offence in two different areas. He has 8 previous cases. Hence, he vehemently, opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Investigation has been completed and charge sheet also filed. The same is pending for committal stage.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, investigation has been completed and charge sheet has also been filed and is in committal stage and though he has some previous cases, in all those cases he was granted bail and also considering all the facts and circumstances of the case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Cheranmahadevi, Tirunelveli District and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the Judicial Magistrate, Cheranmahadevi, Tirunelveli District, at 10.30 p.m., on all working days, for a period of four weeks, thereafter, as and when required for interrogation;

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offences of similar nature.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation
