4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner along with other accused were found in illegal possession of 530kgs of ganja which is a commercial quantity. There are materials available as against the petitioner. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, and considering the facts that the quantity of contraband involved in this case is commercial quantity and considering the fact already the petitions filed by the petitioner for bail were dismissed by this Court and there is no change in circumstances of the case to consider the present petition for bail and considering the fact in this case trial was completed and the case is posted for arguments, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner at this stage.
