2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the accused along with other accused abused the defacto complainant parties and attacked them and thereby caused severe injuries to them. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is a College Student. There is counter case also registered. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the offences are grave in nature. Due to the previous enmity, both parties attacked each other and caused severe injuries. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However, the petitioner has no previous case and the injured in this case has been discharged from the hospital. Counter case has also been registered. Co-accused also released on bail. Investigation is still pending.
