ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 11.12.2025 for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c) r/w 20(b)(ii)(C), 25 & 29(i) of NDPS, Act, 1985 in Crime No. 4 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on the secret information, on 11.12.2025, at about 5.00 hrs, when the respondents police were in patrol duty, they found that the other accused was in illegal possession of 140 kgs of ganja. Based on the confession of co-accused/A1, the petitioner has been arrayed as accused. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that based on the confession of co-accused only, the petitioner has been arrayed as accused and no recovery was made from this petitioner and further the petitioner was in custody on the date of alleged occurrence. He would further submit that he has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 11.12.2025. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondent would submit that the other accused was in illegal possession of 140 kgs of ganja, due to which the case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c) r/w 20(b)(ii)(C), 25 & 29(i) of NDPS, Act, 1985 in Crime No. 4 of 2024. He would further submit that based on the confession of co-accused/A1, the petitioner has been arrayed as accused and the petitioner has 32 previous cases, out of which five cases are similar in nature, out of which four cases are in commercial quantity. He would further submit that the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel
