2. The case of the prosecution is that on 07.03.2026 at about 05.00 a.m., when the police party on patrol duty, they had received secret information. Therefore, they went to the scene of occurrence and found that the accused persons loaded 1 ½ unit of gravel in their vehicle without valid permission. On seeing the police officials they escaped from the scene of occurrence. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Co-accused has been released on bail. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) fairly submits that the offences are grave in nature. The petitioner is involved in theft of valuable minerals from Government land. The petitioner helped the other accused to load the sand. The petitioner has no previous case. He vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
