judicial custody on 30.01.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 179 and 180 of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.28 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 21.01.2026 at about 04.00 a.m, the respondent police received a secret information and on receipt of the same, they went to the place of occurrence and intercepted the vehicle bearing Reg.No.MH-442-2383 and on searching, they found 200 numbers of counterfeit currency notes along with A1 & A2. Hence, the respondent police registered a case against the accused for the aforesaid offences and based on the confession of A1 & A2, the petitioner was arrested. Hence, this petition.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the accused was not present in the scene of occurrence and only based on the confession made by the co-accused, he was implicated in this case and the co-accused was already released on bail and he has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 30.01.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the accused were found in possession of counterfeit currency notes and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner. However, he fairly conceded that the co-accused was released on bail and no previous case is pending against him.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and the petitioner's name was not found in the FIR and only based on the confession made by the co-accused, the petitioner was implicated in this case and already the co-accused was released on bail and no previous case is pending against him and he is in judicial custody from 30.01.2026 onwards, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
