2. The case of the prosecution is that on 25.03.2026 at about 09.20 a.m., on secret information the respondent police went to the spot. At that time the petitioner was found in possession of 8 quarter bottles along with snacks for illegal sale. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The petitioner is in illegal possession of 8 liquor bottles, which were purchased from TASMAC. He has five previous cases similar in nature. There is a proposal pending to invoke Act 14 of TN Act, 1982 against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner. Investigation is still pending.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the nature of charges levelled against the petitioner, though the petitioner has five previous cases, in all those cases he was granted bail, he is in possession of 8 liquor bottles purchased from TASMAC, that though the learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the proposal is pending for invoking Act 14, of TN Act, 1982, as against the petitioner, despite this court granted time from 15.04.2026, till now no steps have been taken and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Kulithalai, Karur District, and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Kulithalai, Karur District, at 10.30 a.m., on all working days, until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which he/she is accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which he/she is suspected;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be
