petitioner's father has been drawing pension of an amount of Rs.22,526/- per month being a retired Special Police Inspector. The said order has not been challenged immediately after the same was passed on 03.12.2020. However, the petitioner herein is not even the applicant based upon which the impugned order came to be passed. The petitioner approached this Court by filing the present writ petition challenging the proceedings dated 03.12.2020. Absolutely, no reasons are assigned either in the affidavit or during the course of argument of the learned counsel for the petitioner for the delay in approaching this Court of more than 5 years. Further, it is also not in dispute that the father of the petitioner has been drawing pension of Rs.22,526/- for all these years and has been continuing to draw the same.

2. In the circumstances, for want of explaining the delay properly and also on the ground that the petitioner herein is not even the applicant seeking compassionate appointment and also on the ground that the petitioner is aged about 34 years, this Court is not inclined to entertain this writ petition and this Court is of the considered view that absolutely the petitioner has no right to seek compassionate appointment at the age of 34 years.

3. Accordingly, this writ petition is dismissed. No costs.
