ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

CRL OP(MD), No.7417 of 2026

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2) and 351(2) of BNS, 2023 and section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.34 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 28.03.2026, at about 05.00 p.m, due to previous motive, the petitioner and other accused are said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked her with their hands and caused injury and threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and she was falsely implicated in this case and she has no way connected in the above said incident. He would further submit that it is a case and case in counter and the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that due to pervious motive, the petitioners and another accused are said to have attacked the complainant with a stone and caused injury and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However, he fairly conceded that it is a case and case in counter and the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and it is a case and case in counter and the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioner, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
