The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 296(b), 118(1) of BNS, 2023 and Section 4 of Tamilnadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002, in Crime No.61 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 15.03.2026, due to previous motive, the petitioners and other accused are said to have abused the complainant and her son in filthy language and attacked them with their hands and stick and caused injury and threatened them with dire consequences. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has no way connected in the above said incident. He would further submit that the injured were discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
