the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2) and 109 of BNS, 2023 and Section 7 r/w 8 of POCSO Act, in Crime No.30 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that defacto complainant is the mother of the victim girl and A1 and the victim girl were in love relationship and on the date of occurrence, A1 had taken her daughter to his area. At that time, the father went to the occurrence place to search for his daughter, at that time, the petitioner and other accused persons attacked the defacto complainant's husband and caused injuries. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the respondent Police registered a case against the petitioner and others. He would further submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the only allegation against the petitioner is that he tried to attack the father of the victim and there is no specific allegation against the petitioner. The petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 18.01.2026. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the investigation is still pending and the petitioner has no previous cases and the offences are grave in nature. He would further submit that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and the only allegation against the petitioner is that he tried to attack the father of the victim and there is no specific allegation against the petitioner and the investigation is almost completed and also considering the fact that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner from 18.01.2026, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to
