CRL OP(MD). No. 7470 of 2026

WEB COPY The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 26.02.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 127(2), 191(2), 191(3), 115(2), 118(1), 109 of BNS @ 127(2), 191(2), 191(3), 115(2), 118(1) & 103(1) of BNS, in Crime No.96 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the complainant is the wife of the deceased. The deceased was running a business in the name of 'Thai Store' at Andalpuram and also indulged in a broker business and car hiring etc., In such circumstances, the deceased along with his friends has hired a car from A4 and subsequently, it was mortgaged by the deceased with A1. On knowing the same, the owner of the vehicle, A4 and his friends called the deceased and his friends for compromise talk on 11.02.2026 and at that time, there was some wordy altercation between them. At that time, the petitioner and the other accused are said to have brutally attacked the deceased with a wooden log and their hands and caused multiple injuries all over the body. Immediately, he was taken to the Muthukulathur Government Hospital, and thereafter, shifted to Ramanathapuram Government Hospital for further treatment on 13.02.2026 and in the hospital, he died on 18.02.2026. Hence, the respondent police registered a case against the accused for the aforesaid offences and arrested the petitioner. Hence, this petition.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they were falsely implicated in this case and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the alleged attack was only made by A1, A2 & A3, and they have no previous case and they have been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 26.02.2026. He would further submit that A1, A2, A4, A7 and A8 were also granted bail by this Court. Therefore, he prayed to grant bail for the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that there are totally 12 accused are involved in this case. The petitioners have been arrayed as A9 and A10. The petitioners are the friends of A1. The deceased hired a car from A4 and subsequently, mortgaged the same with A1 without the knowledge of A4.

In that dispute, the accused are brutally attacked the deceased and caused death to him. He would further submit that no previous case is pending against the petitioners. He would further submit that the investigation is almost completed and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioners.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and considering the facts that the petitioners are only the friends of A1 and the investigation is almost completed, and no previous case is pending against the petitioner and also some of the co-accused were granted bail by this Court and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be
