The petitioner/Sole accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 31.03.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 109(1), 296(b) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.157 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute between the petitioner's family and the defacto complainant's family, the defacto complainant's brother was murdered in the year 2025. The defacto complainant is an eye witness to that occurrence. Due to which, on the date of occurrence, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and also attempted the life of the defacto complainant and also threatened him not to give evidence before the Court against the petitioner. Hence, the complaint.

He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 31.03.2026. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature. He would further submit that the petitioner has two previous cases. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner. However, he fairly submits that no one sustained any injury.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and considering the fact that there was a civil dispute between the parties and thereby, a criminal case has been registered for murder of the relative of the defacto complainant and no one sustained any injury and though the petitioner has two previous cases, the same are not similar kind of offences and in all cases, he was released on bail and as the date of occurrence is 31.03.2026, by this time material part of the investigation might have been completed and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner from 31.03.2026, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[e] the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the accused thereafter

absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 BNS.
