Standing Counsel

ORDER

The petitioner is before this Court seeking a direction to the respondent to release the Earnest Money Deposit (EMD), Security Deposit, and retention money, aggregating to a sum of Rs. 66,95.922/-.

2.The petitioner participated in a tender floated by the respondent Corporation for the construction of a Convention Centre. The petitioner emerged as the successful bidder and was consequently awarded the work under a work order issued by the respondent.

3.According to the petitioner, the work was completed satisfactorily in terms of the contract and the requisite bills were duly submitted. Thereafter, the petitioner submitted a representation seeking release of the Earnest Money Deposit, Security Deposit and retention money.

4.The grievance of the petitioner is that, despite completion of the work and submission of the necessary claims, the respondent Corporation has not released the amounts due and payable without assigning any valid reason.

5.The learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner's claim would be examined and that the amount found payable, if any, would be released within the time stipulated by this Court.

6.Recording the aforesaid submission, this Court is of the view that the ends of justice would be met by directing the respondent to consider the petitioner's claim and release the amount found due and payable in accordance with the terms and conditions of the contract.

7.Accordingly, this writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondent to verify the petitioner's claim and release the Earnest Money Deposit, Security Deposit and retention money, amounting to Rs.66,95,922/-, if found payable, in accordance with the terms of the work order dated 23.07.2024 and other contractual conditions, within a period of six (6) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
