4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that based on the complaint lodged by the defacto complainant, the case has been registered under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 329(4), 296(b), 351(3) of BNS, 2023, Section 4 of TNPHW Act, 2002 and Section 3 of Tamil Nadu Medicare Service Persons and Medicare Service Institutions (Prevention of violence and damage of or loss to property) Act, 2008 in Crime No. 274 of 2026. He would further submit that the petitioner has no previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and considering the facts that there is the dispute between A1 and the defacto complainant in respect of giving treatment and nobody was injured in this case and also the petitioner has no previous case and also considering the period of incarceration
