2. The case of the prosecution is that the complainant is the brother of the deceased. On 12.01.2026 at about 06.00 a.m, the petitioners and other accused are said to have attacked the deceased with pattakathi and caused grievous injuries. Thereafter, the deceased was taken to the hospital. However, he died. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they were falsely implicated in this case and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the co-accused were already released on bail by this Court and no previous case is pending against the petitioners and the investigation was already completed and the case is pending for committal and they have been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 12.01.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioners on the ground that it is a case of murder and hence, the offence is grave in nature. He would further submit that the investigation was completed and now the case is pending for committal and no previous case is pending against the petitioners.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and already investigation was completed and the case has been pending for committal and already the co-accused were released on bail by this Court and no previous case is pending against the petitioners and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions:
