2. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.03.2025, on secret information the respondent police went to the scene of occurrence and found that the accused are in possession of 23 kgs. of ganja and Rs.5,00,000/-. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Previous application filed by this petitioner was dismissed by this Court. Now the investigation has been completed and charge sheet has also been filed before the concerned Court. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The petitioner is named accused and 1 kg. of contraband was recovered from this petitioner. There are three previous cases against the petitioner. Out of which two cases are registered for the intermediate quantity and one case is in respect of other offence. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner. Investigation has been completed and charge sheet has also been filed before the concerned

Court and the case is pending in C.C.No.287 of 2025 on the file of the Principal

Special Court for Trial of NDPS Act Cases, Madurai.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the nature of charges levelled against the petitioner, though the prosecution has stated that the contraband is commercial quantity, from this petitioner, 1 kgs of contraband was recovered through separate mahazer, though the petitioner has two previous cases for intermediate quantity, in those cases, he was granted bail and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned District and Sessions Judge, Principal Special Court for Trial of NDPS Act Cases, Madurai, and on further
