offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 296(b) and 118(1) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.80 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 03.04.2026, the defacto complainant has collected an amount from the villagers for repairing water tab, at that time, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted him with stone and he sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He would further submit that it is a case in counter case. a counter complaint has been registered against the defacto complainant

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and the petitioner has no previous cases. However, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and there was a dispute between the parties regarding sharing money for the repairing water tap and the counter complaint
