innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the co-accused was already released on bail and he has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 22.01.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the accused were found in possession of counterfeit currency notes and the investigation is still pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner. However, he fairly conceded that the co-accused was released on bail and no previous case is pending against him.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
