2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is a Team Leader of Instakart Service Private Limited for the past three years. At that time he found that some valuable goods and company money were missing. Mobile phone was also missing and came to know that it was illegally sold to any one. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is working as product delivery boy in the defacto complainant's company on contract basis. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submits that the offences are grave in nature. The petitioners sold the property without the knowledge of the company and received Rs.3,95,000/- through the G-pay account of A1. A1 is in custody. He opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Investigation is still pending.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, even according to the prosecution case, money was transferred to the account of A1 and no transaction was taken place in the account of the petitioner, the petitioner has no previous case and he is only working as delivery boy and considering all other facts and circumstances of the case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Manapparai, Trichy District, and on further conditions that:
