2. The case of the prosecution is that on 08.09.2025, on secret information the respondent police went to the scene of occurrence and found that the accused are in possession of 26 kgs. of ganja. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Only based on the confession statement of the co-accused, this petitioner was implicated in this case. Co-accused were also released on bail by this Court. No contraband was recovered from this petitioner. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The accused persons are purchased the ganja from Andra Pradesh and sell the same in our State. On the basis of the co-accused, this petitioner was implicated in this case. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on
