2. The case of the prosecution is that on 07.02.2026 at 3.30 p.m, when the defacto complainant along with his passenger drove his vehicle, the petitioner along with other accused in inebriated mode dashed against the vehicle of the defacto complainant and picked up quarrel with them and also threatened them with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. Act 14 of TN Act 1982 has been invoked against the petitioner. But, later it was revoked. There was wordy quarrel between the parties, in which, the petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant and he sustained injuries. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner. Investigation is still pending.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the nature of charges levelled against the petitioner, there was wordy quarrel between the parties while riding the vehicle, already Act 14 of TN Act 1982 has been invoked and later it was revoked and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judge, Additional Mahila Court, Tirunelveli, and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which he/she is accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which he/she is suspected;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation
