2. The case of the prosecution is that on 09.01.2025 at about 18.50 hours, the defacto complainant/police official received the secret information regarding the transportation of Ganja in grey colour innova car bearing Registration No.TN 19 R 0007 near Nagapattinam to Vethranayam at Puthupalli Bridge. Thereafter, the respondent Police arrived at the alleged occurrence and tried to stop the car and the said car was not stopped and rushed in a rash and negligent manner and the Police officials followed the said car

Thereafter, the respondent Police found that the petitioner and other accused person were in illegal possession of 219.770 kgs of Ganja. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the respondent police have registered a false case against the petitioner for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c) r/w 20(b)(ii)(C), 25 and 29(1) of NDPS Act, 1985. The petitioner is an innocent and he is nothing to do with the alleged offences. He would further contend that no contraband was recovered from the petitioner and based on the confession of co-accused, he has been arrayed as A6. He is in judicial custody from 13.01.2026. Therefore prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, though the prosecution stated that the contraband involved in this case is a commercial quantity, the entire contraband were recovered from the other accused and no contraband was recovered from the petitioner and based on the confession of co-accused, he has been arrayed as
